

Idaho Commission on the Arts
Lewiston Regional Planning Meeting, August 13, 2019

Focus Question: "In what ways can you and the Idaho Commission on the Arts encourage greater participation in cultural activities in your community?"

Artist in Residency	Youth Education	Money	Arts for All	Community Venues and Place	Partnerships	Arts Exposure	Sustainable
Traveling lecture	Summer art camps for youth and adults	Outside financial assistance	Establish a city arts commission	Link art, food, ag & heritage	Sharing info, networking, cross promoting	Raise awareness, LED boards	Using art events to promote art or mental health
Residencies with something back to the community	Curriculum packet for educators	Contribute resources to support the arts	Artability programs in every town	Have a maker space	Use business members on Board of Directors	Serve as a clearing house for artists	Develop best practices to create arts events
	Arts in schools. STEAM not just STEM.	Data on value of arts to economy	More public art	Blend cultural events to share cultures and increase participation.	Brand enhancement for business supporting the arts (awareness/planning)	Resource list of artists available	Emotional support for artists
	Arts Ed for K-12 and provide opportunities for youth to show off their work (Art show, battle of the bands, community calendars, poetry slam)	Money, outreach, education	Outreach to homeless and low income	Performing arts center	Art sister cities	More direct advertising to target groups	Best practices for artists
	Many opportunities for youth to actively engage with the arts	Share grant fund sources among communities	Art truck	Building dedicated to the arts in Moscow	Support/assist local/regional arts groups and artists in activities already happening	More dissemination of ideas among communities	Mentorship and match-making
				Rotational space for public art	Take existing structures to a scale to help smaller communities	Promote success stories	No contests for art - pay artists
					Regional listing of events	Communication - don't schedule events over each other, share info
					Block booking with tour groups	ICA social media - calendar and events
